

PolicyLens-Mini

Complete Policy Handbook

Compiled from the 16 policy texts pasted from the PolicyLens-Mini project for application upload and retrieval testing.

Note: obvious text-encoding artifacts in punctuation were normalized for readability. The malformed expense threshold in the supplied source ("above \\.") is preserved rather than guessed.

1. Anti-Harassment Policy

The company is committed to maintaining a workplace free from harassment.

Harassment based on race, gender, religion, disability, or any protected characteristic is strictly prohibited.

Employees must report incidents immediately to HR or a manager.

All reports will be investigated promptly and confidentially.

Retaliation against individuals who report harassment is prohibited.

2. Attendance Policy

Employees are expected to maintain regular and reliable attendance.

Work schedules must be followed unless prior approval is obtained from a manager.

Absences should be reported at least one hour before the scheduled shift.

Repeated unexcused absences may result in disciplinary action.

Employees arriving more than ten minutes late are considered tardy.

3. Benefits Policy

The company provides a comprehensive benefits package to support employee well-being.

Eligible employees receive health insurance, dental coverage, and vision plans beginning after 90 days of employment.

The company also offers a retirement savings plan with employer matching.

Additional voluntary benefits include life insurance, disability coverage, and wellness programs.

Employees may review detailed benefit summaries through the HR portal.

4. Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to maintain professionalism, respect colleagues, and avoid conflicts of interest.

Harassment or discrimination of any kind is strictly prohibited.

Employees must disclose any external employment or consulting activities.

5. Data Protection Policy

Employees must protect company data from unauthorized access, disclosure, or loss.

Confidential information must be stored only in approved systems.

Sensitive data should never be shared through personal email or unencrypted channels.

Employees must follow all data retention and deletion guidelines.

Any suspected data breach must be reported immediately.

6. Expense Reimbursement Policy

Employees may submit expenses for travel, meals, and lodging related to approved business activities.

Receipts are required for all expenses above \.

Expense reports must be submitted within 30 days of the activity.

7. Company Holiday Policy

The company observes 10 paid holidays per year, including New Year's Day, Canada Day, and Christmas Day.

Employees scheduled to work on a holiday receive 1.5x pay or an alternate day off.

8. HR General Policy

The HR department oversees employee relations, onboarding, performance reviews, and workplace compliance.

Employees should contact HR for questions regarding policies, benefits, or workplace concerns.

HR maintains all personnel records and ensures compliance with labor regulations.

9. IT Usage Policy

Company technology resources must be used responsibly and primarily for business purposes.

Employees may not install unauthorized software on company devices.

Internet usage should align with professional standards.

Accessing inappropriate or illegal content is prohibited.

Company devices must remain updated with approved security patches.

10. Parental Leave Policy

Employees are eligible for up to 12 weeks of parental leave following the birth or adoption of a child.

The first 6 weeks are paid at 80% salary.

Employees must provide at least 30 days notice when possible.

11. Paid Time Off (PTO) Policy

Employees accrue PTO at a rate of 1.5 days per month.

PTO may be used for vacation, personal time, or illness.

Requests for PTO longer than 3 consecutive days must be submitted at least 2 weeks in advance.

Unused PTO rolls over up to 5 days per calendar year.

12. Reimbursement Policy

Employees may request reimbursement for approved business expenses.

All reimbursement claims must include itemized receipts.

Requests must be submitted within 14 days of the expense.

Managers review all claims before payment is issued.

Luxury purchases or personal items are not reimbursable.

13. Remote Work Policy

Employees may work remotely up to 3 days per week with manager approval.

All remote employees must be available online between 9 AM and 3 PM EST.

Company equipment must be used for all remote work activities.

14. Information Security Policy

All employees must complete annual security training.

Passwords must be changed every 90 days and meet complexity requirements.

Confidential data must not be stored on personal devices.

Security incidents must be reported within 24 hours.

15. Travel Policy

Business travel must be approved by a manager before any reservations are made.

Employees should use cost-effective transportation and lodging options.

Receipts must be submitted within 14 days of completing travel.

The company reimburses airfare, lodging, meals, and ground transportation when used for business purposes.

Personal travel expenses are not reimbursable.

16. Workplace Behavior Policy

Employees are expected to behave professionally and respectfully at all times.

Bullying, intimidation, or disruptive behavior is not tolerated.

Employees should resolve conflicts constructively and seek manager support when needed.